1. Privacy Notice (How we use workforce information)

St Budeaux CE Primary Academy collect, hold, use and share information about our workforce. This is known as "personal data" and you have rights around that data, including knowing how and why we are processing the data. "Processing" data means everything from collecting, to storing, using, sharing and disposing of it. The School workforce includes all those employed to teach, or otherwise engaged to work, either on a paid, contracted or voluntary basis, at the school.

For the purposes of Data Protection legislation the First Federation Trust is a data controller and is registered as such with the Information Commissioner's Office.

2. The categories of school workforce information that we process

The categories of workforce information that we process include:

- personal information (such as name, address, employee or teacher number, national insurance number)
- characteristics such as ethnicity, language, religion and identity*
- equalities monitoring information, including information about your ethnic origin, sexual orientation, health and religion or belief*
- contract information (such as start date, hours worked, post, roles and salary information)
- work absence information (such as number of absences and reasons) and relevant medical information*
- qualifications (and, where relevant, subjects taught)
- photographic records
- information about medical or health conditions, including whether you have a disability for which the trust needs to make reasonable adjustments*
- details of trade union membership if you pay your subscriptions through payroll*
- next of Kin and emergency contact details
- recruitment information including right to work documentation, confidential references, application and/or CV
- checks made regarding online presence including social media searches
- performance information
- information relating to grievance and/or disciplinary procedures
- your use of school devices and networks as part of our safeguarding procedures
- information about any criminal convictions, offences, cautions and prohibitions. This information may have come from other organisations including former employers, Teacher Regulation Agency, social services and the Disclosure & Barring Service.*

Items marked with an asterisk * are particularly sensitive, and so are known as special category or criminal offence data. This includes data that the Department for Education advises we treat as special category.

Some of the legal conditions for processing special category and criminal offence data require us to have an Appropriate Policy Document ('APD') in place, setting out and explaining our procedures for securing compliance with the data protection principles and to have policies regarding the retention and erasure of such personal data. This document is our Special Category Data Policy Document and should be read alongside this Privacy Notice.

3. Why we collect and use workforce information

We use workforce data to:

- enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed

Copyright: Education Data Hub

- inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- enable individuals to be paid
- facilitate safer recruitment (e.g. by carrying out criminal records checks and requesting references)
- support effective performance management
- allow better financial modelling and planning
- support the management of absence
- photographic images for identification purposes (safeguarding), and celebration purposes (to record work, classes and school/trust events)
- to meet our statutory duties
- for site safety and security
- to protect public monies against fraud
- to detect and prevent crime and combat fraud
- to streamline systems

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the legal basis for processing your personal information include:

- Article 6(a) – Your consent (for any processing which does not fall into the other bases explained below)
- Article 6(b) Contract (your contract of employment)
- Article 6(c) - Compliance with our legal obligations

  In particular, but not exclusively:

  Section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments

  Keeping Children Safe in Education 2024 (statutory guidance from the Department for Education issued under Section 175 of the Education Act 2002 etc).

  Equality and Health & Safety legislation.
- Article 6(d) - Being necessary for us to protect your, or someone else's, Vital Interests (potentially lifesaving)
- Article 6(e) – Carrying out tasks in the Public Interest.
- Article 6(f) – For legitimate Interests

The ways we collect and use sensitive workforce information are lawful based on Articles 9 and 10 of UK GDPR. Please see our Special Category Data Policy document for full details of these lawful bases for processing this data.

Where we are processing your personal data with your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent.

3.1 Marketing Purposes

Where you have given us consent to do so, we may send you marketing information by text message or email promoting school/trust events, campaigns and or charities. You can withdraw this consent at any time by contacting us (see the Contacts section)

3.2 Automated decision making & profiling

We do not currently process any personal data through automated decision making or profiling. Should this change in the future, privacy notices will be updated to explain both the processing and your right to object to it.

4. How we collect workforce information

We collect this information in a variety of ways. For example, data is collected through application forms, obtained from your passport or other identity documents such as your driving licence, from forms completed by you at the start of or during employment (such as pension benefit nomination forms), from correspondence with you, or through interviews, meetings or other assessments, self-certification forms [medical], Fit Notes, images provided by individuals or taken using school/trust photographic equipment, local authorities, previous employers, NHS, law enforcement agencies e.g. police, the Disclosure and Barring Service and the Department for Education [DfE].

We sometimes audio/ video record sessions/lessons/assessments for pupil or staff development and assessment. This will generate personal data including staff images, names, contributions, and will be protected, processed and retained in the same way as all personal data, in line with the Trust's Data Protection Policies and in accordance with our other policies including Acceptable Use, Off Site Working and Bring Your Own Device policies, as well as our Retention Schedule. Recordings in these circumstances will be carried out in line with our HR policies.

Workforce data is essential for the school's/trust's /Local authority's operational use. Whilst the majority of personal information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. We will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain information to us and your rights in relation to this.

5. How, where and for how long we store workforce information

We store workforce information securely on the school's/trust's IT network. The school/Trust IT network is currently hosted on servers and Microsoft Office365 cloud storage. Access is protected by passwords and firewalls/filters. Secure storage is provided for paper based records.

We only keep the information for the length of time we need it for, as shown in our data retention schedule. For more information on our data retention schedule, please visit: https://www.firstfederation.org/data-protection-2/

We dispose of personal information securely when we no longer need it.

6. Who we share workforce information with

We routinely share this information with:

- our Local Authority (particularly in relation functions related to HR, payroll and Criminal Records checks)
- our board of trustees (also known as directors) and its committees, including hub board and local governance committees
- the Department for Education (DfE) inc. the Teaching Regulation Agency
- HMRC
- The Disclosure and Barring Service
- Employers where references are requested – we will always mark these as confidential
- law enforcement agencies e.g. police
- External systems used by the school/trust to carry out day to day processes and requirements. For example, and not limited to; Arbor, iTrent, payroll, meal pay systems, budgeting and finance softwares, pension schemes.

For a full list of the third parties we share with, please refer to the appendix to this Privacy Notice which can be found at: Data Protection | St Budeaux CE Primary Academy

Your personal information may be transferred outside the UK and the European Economic Area ('EEA'), including to the United States. Where information is transferred outside the UK or EEA to a country that is not designated as "adequate" in relation to data protection law, the information is adequately protected by the use of International Data Transfer Agreements and security measures, and other appropriate safeguards. For more information on international transfers, please contact us at the details below.

7. Why we share workforce information

We do not share information about our workforce members with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

8. Devon County Council

This may include, inter alia matters relating to the following: -

- payroll,
- disclosure and barring services

9. Freedom of Information Act and Environmental Information Regulations 2004

As a public body, our Trust (schools and central team) is subject to requests made under the above legislation. Therefore, we have a legal obligation to process any personal data we hold when considering requests under these laws.

For example, we may receive a request asking about numbers of staff with particular levels of professional qualification.

However, we will never disclose personal data in our responses to these requests where to do so would contravene the principles of data protection.

10. Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact the school/trust Office, the Head of School or the Data Protection Officer.

You also have the right to:

- be informed about the collection and use of your personal data.
- rectification, ie to have inaccurate personal data rectified, or completed if it is incomplete.
- erasure, often known as the 'right to be forgotten'; however, this does not apply where, amongst other things, processing is necessary to comply with a legal obligation.

Copyright: Education Data Hub

- restrict processing, although, as above this is a limited right.
- object; though other than for marketing purposes, this is also limited as above.
- Where we rely on your consent to process your data, you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you do change your mind, or you are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know – our contacts are in section 2.14 at the end of this document.
- You also have rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling, though these are not currently relevant
- Finally, the right to seek redress, either through the ICO, or through the courts.

If you make a request, we will keep a record of the request and any personal data supplied for a suitable period after its fulfilment, in order to deal with any questions you, your representatives or regulators may have about it.

11. How Government uses your data

We share personal data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. We are required to share information about our school/trust employees with the Department for Education (DfE) under the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments. All data is transferred securely and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls which meet the current government security policy framework. For more information about the Department's data sharing process, please visit: https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data

The workforce data we share with the DfE through data collections:

- informs departmental policy on pay and the monitoring of the effectiveness and diversity of the school/trust workforce
- links to school/trust funding and expenditure
- supports 'longer term' research and monitoring of educational policy.

For all information relating to how the DfE uses your information please visit:

11.1 Data collection requirements

The DfE collects and processes personal data relating to those employed by schools (including Multi Academy Trusts) and local authorities that work in state funded schools (including all maintained schools, all academies and free schools and all special schools including Pupil Referral Units and Alternative Provision). All state funded schools are required to make a census submission because it is a statutory return under sections 113 and 114 of the Education Act 2005

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools.

11.2 Sharing by the Department

The Department may share information about school/trust employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school/trust staff in England by:

Copyright: Education Data Hub

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure that the confidentiality of personal data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access to it and its use. Decisions on whether DfE releases personal data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested; and
- the arrangements in place to securely store and handle the data

To be granted access to school/trust workforce information, organisations will comply with our strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
